

I am AGAINST this propasal because of: Safety-people won't hear announcements; Health-noise pollution over engine noise; Arguments-possible phone "rage" as in theaters; Psychological problems-enclosed space, can't escape bothersome people + noise. Overall, people don't respect others in public; this would be a "disaster." People need peace and quiet when they travel, especially with the discomfort of the crowd, small space, already noisy conditions.